For all Muslims who are still unaware of this very dangerous blind spot in Islam, Hadith!

Spying against a non-Muslim country to benefit a Muslim country while having a covenant with them is absolutely a very serious and destructive sin!

Main topic:

A Moroccan man who worked for the (NCTV) National Coordinator for Counterterrorism and Security of the Netherlands and who is suspected of spying for Morocco.

For all Muslims who are still unaware of this very dangerous blind spot, Hadith, in Islam!

If a Muslim is employed by a Dutch government and then engages in espionage for Morocco, this is a very grave sin in Islam!

At the same time, to cite another similar example in this same category:

Any Muslim who holds a Dutch passport and commits criminal offenses such as theft, drug dealing, drug smuggling, and anything punishable that can be linked to your Dutch passport, which you obtained on the condition that you, like everyone else, will abide by Dutch law, is in the same category!

Are you breaking this prohibition by committing criminal offenses?

Then you too have committed a grave sin, because both the Moroccan employee who espionaged for Morocco at the NCTV and you, who hold a Dutch passport, have made agreements with the Dutch state to abide by the law.

So, breaking this agreement is a grave sin that will cost you dearly on the Day of Judgment.

To continue on the main topic:

If a Moroccan employed by the NCTV espionages for and/or on behalf of Morocco, this person is not only cursed under Islam, but even worse, namely:

Upon him rests the curse of Allah, the angels, and all people. Neither obligatory nor voluntary acts will be accepted from him as a reward on the Day of Resurrection.

As stated below:

A hadith like this has been narrated on the authority of A'mash with the same chain of transmitters (but at the end) these words are added:

" He who violated the covenant with a Muslim, there is upon him the curse of Allah, of angels and of all people. Neither an obligatory act nor a supererogatory act would be accepted from him as recompense on the Day of Resurrection; and in the hadith transmitted by two other narrators these words are not found:" He who claimed false paternity." And in the hadith transmitted by Waki' there is no mention of the Day of Resurrection.

In this case, we see on the news that a Moroccan police officer is also involved with the Moroccan NCTV employee in this espionage scandal for Morocco.

This fulfills the aforementioned Hadith, because both have a covenant with the Dutch state, and both have helped each other to damage this covenant with the Dutch state by committing espionage for Morocco.

Another example is when a Muslim in the Netherlands tells another Muslim, "Come on, let's go steal something or let's do criminal activities together."

This also fulfills the aforementioned Hadith, because one Muslim breaks the covenant they have with the Netherlands by not committing any crimes.

And vice versa.

The Book of the Prohibited actions

(277) Chapter: Prohibition of the Treachery and Breaking one's Covenant

Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri (May Allah be pleased with him) said:

The Prophet (ﷺ) said, "Every one who breaks a covenant will have a flag by his buttocks on the Day of Resurrection. It will be raised higher according to the nature of his breach. Behold, there will be no greater a sin with respect to breaking the covenant than that of a ruler who breaks his covenant with the Muslim masses."
